

The Lost Kite

(Ages 4-8)

Ella made a bright red kite with a yellow tail.

“Let’s fly it!” she said, running to the hill.

The wind blew strong. The kite soared high?

and then SNAP! ? the string broke.

The kite flew into the forest.

Ella followed and met a squirrel holding it.

“This is yours?” asked the squirrel.

Ella nodded. “Thank you!”

From that day, they flew it together every weekend.
